

LITERATURE QUOTE RESPONSES

There are so many amazing books that can inspire our lives! Let's play with some famous lines from literature and write what we think about them.

WORD PLAY

Directions:

Read the quote and respond to it with how you are feeling in the current moment with your current situation/surroundings. Feel free to use this as a freewriting exercise to open your mind to a larger thought. If you like one of your responses, feel free to expand on it and create a prose piece.

“People generally see what they look for, and hear what they listen for.” (To Kill a Mockingbird)

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

“It was the best of times, it was the worst of times...”

(Tale of Two

Cities)

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

_____ “It is our choices, Harry, that show what we truly are, far more than our abilities.” (Harry Potter and the

Sorcerer’s

Stone)

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

“What happens to a dream deferred?” (Langston Hughes)

WORD PLAY